Providing expert equine advice on the best insurances for your specific needs are:

Penny Reid, Operations Manager

Penny has worked in the equine insurance industry for the past 13 years. Committed to providing quality insurance at affordable premiums, Penny has a life-long passion for horses, and previously trained as an instructor with Chris Bartle before combining running a successful livery yard and bringing up a family.

Kiren Dennehy, Technical Manager

Kiren has worked in the insurance industry since 1989 and although she comes from the least 'horsey' background, she has become so involved with the equestrian way of life she can 'talk horse' as well as the rest of the team and has in depth insurance knowledge.

Perdie Reid, Claims Manager

Perdie has three horses at home and currently competes in both Eventing and Riding Club Competitions. Perdie ensures that all AmTrust Equine claims are dealt with swiftly and sympathetically and prides herself that the AmTrust claims service is second to none.

Irene Harper, Sales Consultant

Irene always has at least three horses at home as both her daughters compete. She has a keen eye for a good horse and enjoys seeing her young horses progress. She is always ready to provide you with a competitive quote and to discuss your insurance needs.

Karen Charman, Sales Consultant

Karen has worked in the equine insurance industry for over 10 years, she deals with the individual policy underwriting and policy renewals as well as being on hand to discuss your insurance requirements. She has two horses and currently competes at Riding Club level, and worked at a professional show jumping yard before having a family.
